

ICE SHOW 2018
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What are the dates of the ice show?

Saturday, April 7 at 1:30 pm
Saturday April 7 at 7:30 pm
Sunday, April 8 at 1:30 pm

2. When will my child skate?

École des Petit: Sunday afternoon.

Patinage Plus (badges 0 – 6):

If your child has been practicing on Friday evening, then he/she will skate in the show on Saturday afternoon.

If your child has been practicing on Sunday, then he/she will skate in the show on Saturday evening.

If your child has been practicing on Monday, then he/she will skate in the show Sunday afternoon.

3. How many shows does my child have to do?

If you register your child to participate in the ice show, you are committing to attend ALL the practices and then making sure that your child participates in the One show – out of respect for all the other skaters. Semi-private level and higher will participate in all three shows.

4. How long is the show?

Approximately 2 ½ hours long, with an intermission.

5. Do I need to buy a ticket for my child?

If your child is in “École des Petit or Patinage Plus”, and if you plan to sit and watch the show, yes you do need to buy a ticket for your child. The price will be $3.00, which is half the price of a regular child’s ticket.

Your child will perform his/her number, change out of his/her costume and then be escorted to their seat where they will meet you. Do not forget to bring his ticket when you leave him for the show.

6. What will my child need for the show?

- Skating guards (with their name on each guard)
- Beige skating tights, for the girls

7. When are the practices and how many are there?

In most cases the practices are scheduled at the same time as your child has been skating during the winter season. There could be the odd exception. There are a total of 4 to 5 practices. The practices start in the middle of March and run through until the Ice Show. There is also a general practice during the week of the show which is mandatory to attend.

If you have any further questions, please check the web site (www.cpabrossard.com) or do not hesitate to ask your child’s Ice Captain.